

Exit problems associated with Coxeter groups

John Moriarty
University of Manchester

I will explain how certain boundary value problems can be solved using reflection groups. Several examples will be given, including first exit times of Brownian motion from both Euclidean and non-Euclidean domains.